Calvary North Summer Camps Policies

In order for everyone to enjoy our camp experiences, the following policies have been established. This is our 9th year to hold Summer camps and these policies have proven to help our camps be successful year after year!

ALL campers, parents and teachers are asked to abide by each rule:

1. Respect: Children will be expected to treat each other with kindness. Bullying such as name-calling, pushing, making fun of, leaving out a child, hitting, etc... will not be acceptable. Measures will be taken to correct the undesirable behavior by teachers and the director. If their efforts do not produce results, the child will be "kicked out" of camps.
2. Respect between adults: Parents and teachers are expected to listen to each other's side of situations. Do not assume your child is always correct and it's the teacher's fault. Likewise, teachers will not assume that your child is always guilty. Kindness, patience and ADULT behavior is expected. If issues cannot be resolved, the director will call a meeting between all parties and then she will decide the most desirable outcome for Summer Camps. This could include a family being asked to leave camps, a teacher being reprimanded or let go, a change in the child's class, a change of assignment for a teacher, as well as many other possible scenarios.
3. Attitude: If a child's attitude is adversely affecting the camp atmosphere because he/she is whining, crying, pouting or is unwilling to participate after given various options by teachers, he/she will be escorted to the director's office and the parent called. Depending on the severity of the attitude, a parent might be asked to pick up the child. If this is not possible, the child will remain in the director's office until he/she can be retrieved. NO REFUND will be given and the child may or may not be able to return to camp activities. The director will make that decision.

4. Old School Rules: We expect children to treat their teachers with the same love they will receive from the adults serving in camps. This means children will not be allowed to scream at adults, say, “no” when asked to do something, disobey a direct instruction such as cleaning up the activity, kick or otherwise physically harm an adult, spit, stick out tongue, roll eyes or “talk back” including others. Behavior such as these listed will earn a child a visit to the director and/or a trip home (NO REFUND) and no return to camp.
5. Bible: Each camp will involve stories from the Christian Bible. Calvary Chapels are non-denominational, so doctrinal issues (such as baptism) will not be discussed. General Christian principles and truth from the old and new testaments will be taught as it relates to each camp theme. If for any reason you do not want your child exposed to these Christian teachings, you should not enroll your child in Calvary North camps.
6. General schedule: Each camp is designed around a theme or subject matter. Different techniques will be used to teach and help children enjoy our subjects. Camps will include music/dance, games (both active and quiet), art/crafts, Bible stories/secular stories, learning opportunities with experiments, books and demonstrations as well as media related to our themes (such as documentaries or Bible stories in cartoon format).

A tremendous amount of planning and effort goes into camps, so parents are expected to be respectful of camp time and arrive on time (at 10:00 for the beginning of camps) and to pick up on time (for whatever time you registered).

In other words . . . be on time for the camp hour of 10 a.m. and pick up on time at 2:00 p.m. or 4:00 p.m. or 6:00 p.m. (whichever time you have chosen and are paying for)

7. Clothes and Shoes: For all camps except water week, clothes should be comfortable. Shorts, t-shirts, blue jeans, tank tops and any other item designed for summer are fine for camps. Tennis shoes are best, but close-toed sandals are also good. The only footwear NOT ALLOWED are FLIP FLOPS! You will be called to bring other footwear if he/she is at camp in these!

For water week, the most important requirement is WATER SHOES!! Your child will not be allowed to participate in any water fun without them. Our concrete gets as slick as an ice rink when wet, but rubber soled water shoes (or tennis shoes) alleviate slipping. Girls need to wear one piece bathing suits or a t-shirt over a bikini. Boys can wear swim trunks and go shirtless. Sun tan lotion should be applied at home AND another form (lotion or spray) brought to camp labeled with the child's name. A change of clothes (including underwear and socks) and a towel should also be brought.

8. Food and snacks: Sweets are NOT allowed at camp. Do not send cookies, pudding, candy, sodas, cake, muffins, etc... It will be removed from your child's lunch/snack and returned home at pick up.

Do send almost anything else. Two snacks and lunch will be necessary every day. Sending more than needed is better than not enough! We have microwaves in each room, so it is okay to send items to be heated for lunch such as pizza or left-overs (restrict heating time to 1 minute or less). Sandwiches, finger foods (such as vegetables, crackers, cheese, meats) and fruit are also great.

At this time, we are not a peanut-free facility, so peanut butter sandwiches are fine. If we do have a child who is allergic to nuts or peanut butter, we will take precautions to separate him/her from others.

Lastly, be sure to put an ice pack in your child's lunch box. Fridges are too small to store all our campers' lunches.
